

WHY IS AUSTRALIA A GOOD STUDY DESTINATION?

Planning to explore the Land of Oz? The country has undoubtedly become the melting pot. Ranking as the 3rd most preferred destination for overseas education, Australia offers a thriving economy with vast opportunities and high-quality education.

Exponential growth has been witnessed in the rise of applications from students. Known for its laid back high-quality lifestyle, ever-evolving educational advances, well-adjustable climate, and cultural diversity - Australia is a Dorothy Dix.

1 SALAD BOWL

Four out of every ten Australians is a migrant. We employ the concept of the Salad bowl because, in Australia, diversity is accepted and appreciated. Housing citizens from over 90 countries, the nation holds the reputation of being laidback and peaceful.

Australia admires individual freedoms, and the rights of citizens and visitants are protected under a clear-cut legal system. The multicultural nature of Australian society implies international students are readily accepted by other students, and teachers are experienced in teaching classes to students from many countries.

2 EDUCATION FROM THE BEST

Independent global rankings such as Times Higher Education, QS, and Shanghai Rankings have consistently ranked Australian institutions in the world's top 100 universities year after year.

Australian universities incorporate the latest innovations, technological advances, and current trends in the industry to ensure that their programs meet the demands of the ever-evolving global industry. One of the highlights of the Australian education system is that students can switch between qualification levels and universities.

3 DIVERSITY IN EDUCATION

International students have a wide class of options when it comes to studying in Australia. Each course focuses on teaching students to become agile and entrepreneurial thinkers.

Home to 15 Noble Laureates, one can simply imagine the support offered by universities in research. Australia is credited for many important discoveries, such as penicillin, IVF, and even the eternally embraced wi-fi. So it simply comes down to - if one wants to learn from the best in coursework degree or engage in one's own research.

4 PART-TIME AND POST-STUDY OPPORTUNITY

During the course, International students can work up to 40 hours per fortnight in Australia that can pay for one's lifestyle in Australia. Part-time work can also be an opportunity to find course-related jobs. Many Australian courses incorporate work experience programs and internships so one can earn hands-on industry experience and grow a professional network.

Australian institutions have designed an educational system that allows you to make the cut in the global workforce. An Australian qualification makes you a cogent employee prospect.

5 COST OF LIVING

The myriad of confusing procedural tasks for visa applications can leave one strained. The Australian government lays high emphasis on streamlining the visa processes for international students. Currently, the time taken to process visas has appreciably reduced, as have the number of documents demanded proof of identification. Also, Every university in Australia has a dedicated International Student Support unit to assist international students.

6 STREAMLINED VISA PROCEDURE

The aspect of financial viability is crucial considering Australia's wide acceptance among Indian students. Some courses and cities are a bit pricey, but when it comes to 'Return on Investment,' Australia is on top of the pile for UG, PG & Doctoral courses.

Australia offers an excellent infrastructure and plenty of lucrative job opportunities for Graduates, making it easier to earn some exposure and money to almost cover living costs in Australia. The cost of living depends on what course you undertake and the city you want to live in.

7 LIFESTYLE

Australia offers a way of life like no other, The country has a more tropical-infused climate all year round. Needless to say, Australian cities have repeatedly ranked highly as the world's most student-friendly cities. The diverse natural environment offers a range of experiences - you can relax on the golden beaches, and explore the untamed outback.

Australia is a technologically advanced country with a globally thriving economy. One can enjoy all the benefits of high-quality services, transportation, and infrastructure.

---